Welcome to Worship

SMALL GROUPS ???

Join us in the Prayer RM - Today, following the worship service, for a brief info meeting.

Are you willing to step out in faith and let God use you? Small groups aren't about having it all figured out, they're about showing up, listening well, and walking alongside others in their faith journey. If you care about people, value community, and are open to growing yourself, God can use you in incredible ways.

NEW CLASS: Habits of the Household
Starts JAN 11 - Choir Room - 15 Week Study
Led By: Pastor Robby

Join us as we dive into Justin Whitmel Earley's Habits of the Household: Practicing the Story of God in Everyday Family Rhythms.

This class will challenge us to weave faith into the real stuff of home life—meals, mornings, bedtimes, screens, discipline—turning ordinary moments into opportunities for grace and worship.

We'll work through the book together (jumping to the most helpful topics for our group). To get the most out of it, plan to read each week. I have a few copies to lend; better yet, grab your own so you can dig in deeply.

Especially inviting parents in the thick of raising kids—AND empty-nesters! Your experience is gold for the rest of us, and these habits will equip you to reflect, encourage your grown kids, and invest in grandkids.

Read. Discuss. Pray. Let God reshape the rhythms of your home (or the homes you influence).

Community grows here—come be part of it!

Nicene Creed Class
Starts Back Up - January 11th - Room 118
Led By: Jim Ash

"For 1700 years, the worldwide church has recited the Nicene Creed as a simple statement of our faith. Roman Catholics, Eastern Orthodox members, Protestants of many denominations and others claim to believe and live by the Nicene Creed. What is a Creed? What (or where) was Nicene? Who wrote the Creed? What does it really mean for our faith and our lives? Join this adult class in looking at the Creed in a phrase by phrase study, and find some answers with a group of fun, questioning, faithful believers. All are welcome!"

NEW CLASS: Turning Points in Christian History
Starts JAN 18th - Room 108
Led By: Peg Reeves

Ever wondered how we got from 12 faithful followers of Jesus to over 30,000 Protestant denominations? This class will explore how God's truth has traveled from the first century to our current times. Come join us as we explore how God has worked to preserve truth and protect His people through a lot of tough times. Great class for those who want to know more about church history and some of the great leaders of the church.
