Habits of the Household
Led by Pastor Robby in Room 115

Join us as we dive into Justin Whitmel Earley's Habits of the Household: Practicing the Story of God in Everyday Family Rhythms. This class will challenge us to weave faith into the real stuff of home life—meals, mornings, bedtimes, screens, discipline—turning ordinary moments into opportunities for grace and worship. For parents raising kids—AND empty-nesters! Read. Discuss. Pray. Let God reshape the rhythms of your home (or the homes you influence).

Nicene Creed Class
Led by Jim Ash in Room 118

"For 1700 years, the worldwide church has recited the Nicene Creed as a simple statement of our faith. Roman Catholics, Eastern Orthodox members, Protestants of many denominations and others claim to believe and live by the Nicene Creed. What is a Creed? What (or where) was Nicene? Who wrote the Creed? What does it really mean for our faith and our lives? Join this adult class in looking at the Creed in a phrase by phrase study, and find some answers with a group of fun, questioning, faithful believers. All our welcome!"

Turning Points in Christian History
Led by Peg Reeves in Room 104

Ever wondered how we got from 12 faithful followers of Jesus to over 30,000 Protestant denominations? This class will explore how God's truth has traveled from the first century to our current times. Join us as we explore how God has worked to preserve truth and protect His people through a lot of tough times. A Great class for those who want to know more about church history and some of the great leaders of the church.

Please donate only commercially made items—ideally individually packaged. No refrigerated or fresh foods. All items should be shelf-stable with a long expiration date.
